Your are looking for an integration course?

Then you've come to the right place!

Integration courses are funded by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF) for people with relevant experience.

In the integration course you will learn the German language. In addition, you will be taught basic knowledge about the legal system, culture and history of Germany. The aim is to familiarise you with living conditions in Germany to the extent that you will be able to act independently in the affairs of daily life, ideally without the support of third parties.

Our integration course contain:

- 600 lessons of German: Here you will learn how to use the language in everyday life and how to hold conversations, e.g. when shopping, at school, at work or when visiting the doctor.
- 100 lessons orientation course: Here you will learn about Germany's state, society and history.

The course will conclude with you taking the German test for immigrants A2-B1 and the test "Living in Germany" and once passed receipt of the "Integration Course Certificate".

Our integration course is free of charge

Participation in our integration course is free of charge if you are entitled to a certificate of eligibility from the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF).

We will be happy to advise you on applying for the entitlement certificate. Simply make an appointment for an individual consultation or come to our office hours:

- Gutsmuthsstraße 23, 12163 Berlin: Thursday 11:00 a.m. to 03:00 p.m
